Day 3

Reykjavík – Borgarfjörður (approx. 130km)

Today you will head to the Borgarfjörður area, in Western part of Iceland

You will visit Hraunfossar (Lava waterfall). Time to embark on a very unique experience, the impressive Ice Tunnel, called “Into the Glacier” This is the largest manmade ice tunnel in the world, located at Iceland’s second largest glacier, Langjökull. Meeting point is at Húsafell, where you embark on a special Monster Truck to take you to the Ice Cap, where the entrance to the tunnel is

During this tour you will experience the great Icelandic vehicles, the Monster Trucks, that drive on glaciers and explore the best of the glacier, around, on and within!

Day 7

Reykjavik – Golden Circle – Hella (approx. 200km)

The Golden Circle is one of Iceland's top excursions, where you get to see 3 of Iceland's most beautiful natural wonders

Visit Thingvellir National Park, where the world's first parliament, Althingi, was located. See the majestic Gullfoss Waterfall, and the infamous Geysir hot spring, which no longer erupts but Geysir's little brother Strokkur erupts every 10-15 minutes

Overnight Hotel Stracta

Day 8

South Shore; Hella – Vík – Hella (approx. 190km)

Today you will see the South Shore of Iceland, where nature offers breath taking scenery with glaciers, volcanoes, waterfalls and black sandy beaches

Highlights of the day will be the two waterfalls Skógafoss and Seljalandsfoss. If you are prepared to get a little wet, you can walk behind Seljalandsfoss waterfall. Eyjafjallajökull Volcano is located underneath a glacier and is famous for its eruption in 2010 causing most of European airspace to be closed down and many aircraft left stranded for days.

We will end the tour in Vík, firstly with a stop at the black sandy beach with basalt columns and then return back to Hella

Overnight Stracta Hotel

Day 9

Hella – Reykjavik

Transfer from Hella back to Reykjavik

Enjoy free time in the afternoon
